Our Lady of Fatima

100th Anniversary of Mary's Appearances

This year commemorates the 100th Anniversary of the Blessed Mother's appearances at Fatima, Portugal. Six times during the year 1917, she appeared to three shepherd children, as they were tending their sheep in the countryside. On the 13th of each month, May—October (except in August, on the 19th) the Blessed Mother spoke to the children, Lucia, Francisco and Jacinta, in the field known as Cova da Iria (the Cove of Irene). These appearances revealed to the children messages that they were to bring to the world. The revelations spoke about the need for continuing prayer, the reality and horrors of hell, the will of God for all to repent and be saved, the need to offer sacrifice, the trouble that Communism would cause the world, the importance of consecrating Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and the need to pray the Rosary.

In the next weeks' Bulletins a summary will be given of the appearances of Our Lady of Fatima and their impact upon our Church and the world.

A Plenary Indulgence

In honor of this 100th Anniversary of the appearances of Mary at Fatima, Pope Francis has granted a Plenary Indulgence throughout this anniversary year, that is up until Nov. 26, 2017.

A plenary indulgence is the forgiveness of the temporal punishment due to sin. Indulged prayers or actions please the Lord and make up for past sins committed. Those sins not repented of on earth will require a purification in Purgatory.

To obtain this indulgence:

- 1. Make a pilgrimage to the Fatima Shrine in Portugal -- or – devoutly pray before a statue of Our Lady of Fatima in any church anywhere in the world on the 13th of each month (May – Oct.)
- 2. Pray to Our Father, recite the Creed and pray to Our Lady of Fatima.
- 3. One must also fulfill the ordinary conditions for a Plenary Indulgence: go to confession and Communion, be interiorly detached from sin, and pray for the intentions of the Holy Father.

(The elderly or infirm can receive the indulgence by praying in front of any statue of Our Lady of Fatima and offering their prayers, sufferings, sacrifices, and spiritually uniting themselves with the jubilee celebrations on the 13th of each month.)

Fatima Prayer

Most Holy Virgin, who chose to come to Fatima
To reveal the treasures of graces hidden in the recitation of the Rosary,
Inspire our hearts with a sincere love and devotion
That meditating on the mysteries of our redemption therein,
We may obtain the conversion of sinners,
and our own requests made here
For the greater glory of God, for your honor
And for the good of souls. Amen.
Our Lady of the Rosary of Fatima, Pray for us.

Catechist Acknowledgement – I know you join me in sincerely thanking the following faithful men and women of our parishes who unselfishly gave so much of themselves to the children and teens of our parishes over the past months: Rita Straka, Meagan Gibbons, Karen Steinert, Marie Mendez, Patrice Kealy, Josephine Yarosz, Chris Higgins, Jennifer Guida, Dawn Bruno, Cathy McNanna, Maggie Nicole, Mike Bussow, John Lucadamo and Dan and Lucy O’Keefe. Special thanks also to our Pastor, Father Wayne and Deacon Wayne for all they do for us! Our catechetical and evangelization efforts are possible because of the selfless love and dedication of each and every one. Please continue to keep them in your prayer of thanksgiving to Christ, the Teacher. Also, please consider answering your baptismal call through the Ministry of Catechesis. It is very rewarding – just ask any of us! Just call the Religious Education office if you may be feeling called by Our Lord to serve in this very significant way.

SAVE THE DATE: Catechist Mass of Thanksgiving/Family Breakfast will take place on Sunday, June 4th at the 9:30AM Mass at St. Thomas.

Our next gathering will take place at Our Lady Queen of Peace Parish today Sunday, May 7th, from 6:00-8:00PM. There will be plenty of fun, games, music and prayer. Come join us and see what’s going on!!!

Fatima’s 100th

On May 13, 1917, three shepherd children – Lucia Santos and her cousins Jacinta and Francisco Marto – were tending their flock outside their Portuguese village. A beautiful lady appeared to them saying she was from heaven and asking them to return to that spot for the next six months. On October 13, her last appearance, 70,000 people gathered to witness the “miracle of the sun,” during which the sun appeared to zigzag across the sky and change colors.

The lady, who later revealed herself to be the Blessed Virgin Mary, asked the children to pray the Rosary daily to obtain peace and the end of World War I. She also gave them three secrets, which were later revealed by Sister Lucia. The first was a vision of hell. The second asked for the Consecration of Russia and the third was a vision of the death of a pope and other religious figures.

Jacinta and Francisco, who died shortly after the apparitions, were beatified in May 2000 by Pope John Paul II. Lucia lived her life as a nun, dying in 2005 at the age of 97.

In 2013, Pope Francis consecrated the entire world to the care of Our Lady of Fatima. Today, Fatima is one of the most visited pilgrimage sites in the world. On May 13, 2017, Our Holy Father, Pope Francis will visit Fatima to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the first apparition. Pope Francis will canonize Blessed Francisco and Jacinta Marto at Mass, making them the youngest non-martyrs to ever be declared saints in the Catholic Church.

Catholic Heritage in Western Sussex County –

Although Our Lady Queen of Peace was believed to have opened in 1951, a Jan. article in the Sussex County Independent says the property on SR 31 [now 206] being used for a rectory and church, was being considered for expansion.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly
Fourth Sunday of Easter
May 7, 2017

“Beloved: If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good, this is a grace before God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example that you should follow in his footsteps. When he was insulted, he returned no insult, when he suffered he did not threaten, instead he handed himself over to the one who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that free from sin, we might live for righteousness”

Risen Lord, to unite themselves to Jesus and His cross. We move a few weeks from Easter and can forget that the cross of Christ is the measure of the world.

How do I react to adversity? Revenge, road rage, doing unto others before they do unto me... it is easy to avoid the admonition of Peter. To be sure I’m on the right path I look to the virtues found in the beatitudes - meekness, humility, desire for holiness, dependence upon God, and yes even the suffering I endure. Together with the virtues which Paul offered the Galatians, I become fully equipped to move forward.
