This can only be given to registered and active members of the parish.

The Sacrament of Baptism is celebrated during Mass providing that liturgical norms do not dictate otherwise. Please contact the office to schedule a Baptism and to make arrangements for preparations especially for first time parents. Baptisms may be scheduled at other times if extenuating conditions apply. Godparents must be practicing Catholics.

Part of our ministry is to visit the sick in hospital or at home. Please inform us of the needs of the sick, and we will be happy to respond as best we can.

Wisdom ! Be Attentive !

If this were a Byzantine Catholic Church, the Gospel Reading would be introduced with the words above. The Gospel is the height of wisdom, of course, because it reveals the words and actions of God Himself in Jesus. The Gospels, along with the rest of the inspired Scriptures, give us gems from the mind of God—infinite wisdom from Him who is the Author and Preserver of all. To follow such wisdom is to be in tune with the Source and Culmination—the Alpha and Omega—of All.

Young King Solomon in the First Reading, at the beginning of his reign, had a grasp of all this as he made his request to the Lord. God had offered to give Solomon anything he wanted. Solomon, in reply, ask the Lord for an “understanding heart,” so the he might wisely and justly lead the people placed under his care. God was pleased with this request: that he had asked for wisdom and not power, or wealth, or personal fame. In fact, he was given all three; “the wisdom of Solomon” is still a synonym for true integrity and uprightness and understanding.

Believe it or not, each of us who have been confirmed has access to the same wisdom and understanding as Solomon. It is one of the seven gifts given to us when the Holy Spirit came fully upon us at Confirmation. We too are able to tap into True Wisdom—the mind of God Himself.

To do so, we need to go to that deeper level, to the place that prayer can take us. It is in prayer, in meditation and contemplation that the Lord can speak to us. Here He can reveal something of the meaning of the things that happen to us. Here, in the depths of prayer, we can discern the outlines of the larger picture; we can see something of God’s plans for the world and how we fit in. We find that our lives are not at all by accident, but planned by God for this specific time and place. We are called to be a part of this particular family, and this particular faith community. The Lord helps us to see our place in the world—and how we can contribute. If Wisdom guides our words and actions, then God’s Kingdom is being fulfilled in us.

May we all dig more deeply into the treasures of God’s Wisdom—in prayer, in Scripture, in Sacrament. Let us allow that Wisdom to speak and act through us—for our fulfillment and for the good of God’s world. We may not be Byzantine, but we’d be wise to follow their advice: when Wisdom is spoken—be attentive !

God bless you,
Father Wayne

Catholic Summer Camp Thank You

We have recently finished a fun (and Hot) week of Catholic Summer Camp! Thank you to all of the parents and grandparents of our parish who encouraged their children to attend. We hope they grew in their faith; all while having a good time and making new friends! Thanks to the staff at OLQP for all of their involvement, cooperation and hospitality. Also to all the catechists and parishioners who assisted us – especially our Rita Straka, Marie Mendez, Chris Higgins and Mandy Sousa and to all of the teens – especially our Lauren Cunico, Sean Kealy, Maggie Nicole, Emilia, Julianna and Mary VanderPloog. Special thanks to OLQP Pastor Father Ed, Father Brian and our Pastor, Father Wayne and to our catechist, Karen Steinert who served as the coordinator for this successful parish event. God was so good and gracious to us and we look forward, in prayer, to next year!

From the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the joy-filled responsibility of the entire faith community. As a community of faith, we are called to encourage others to become fully initiated Catholics. Each of us, as followers of Jesus, is called to be both a hearer of the Word and a doer of the Word. Get involved in spreading the message of God's Word! Exercise your faith! Now is your opportunity. Be a motivator of another on their journey of faith. As a doer of the Word, you will become more aware of how God is present and active in your life each day.

Have those you motivate call the Religious Education office at 973-948-7004, and their call will be returned.

Please Join Us For A Fond Farewell

It is with a bittersweet heart that we have to say "farewell" to our parishioners Tom and Cindy Costello and their family.

Like many parishioners, the Costello's have truly given of themselves to our parish. Ben and Josh have served as Altar Servers since they were small boys and have served as Children's Liturgy of the Word Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers for several years also. They could always be counted on at Coffee Hours, Picnics, Snowstorms or wherever we needed them to lend a hand. Tom has served as a Eucharistic Minister and has been an active Knight of Columbus, including holding office for many years. Cindy has faithfully proclaimed the Word of God as a Lector and has been a very significant servant throughout the Diocese of Paterson bringing Pope Saint John Paul II's Theology of the Body teaching to many parishes. Both Tom and Cindy have facilitated the diocesan's God's Plan for a Joy-filled Marriage Pre-Cana instruction and served as Confirmation Catechists here for over 10 years, touching the hearts and minds of countless teens, while guiding them on their faith journey. Now the next part of their faith and life journey is taking them to Steubenville, Ohio.

As a parish family, we would like to wish them well and have a chance to say good-bye to them on Sunday, August 6th at the 9:30AM Mass and with a Coffee Hour to follow. If you would like, feel free to bring something to share, but more than that, please stop in to thank them all for their many years of faithful service to our parish and to wish them a heartfelt farewell.

Goodbyes are not forever. Goodbyes are not the end. They simply mean I'll miss you. Until we meet again. ~ Jiminy Cricket

History of Western Sussex Missions

In the summer of 1965, St. James and St. Thomas held a Bazaar. In May, 1966, children from St. Matthew, St. Thomas and St. James received First Holy Communion at the St. James 10:30AM Sunday Mass. Afterwards, the Rosary Society served breakfast.

Moms and Tots Playgroup will continue to meet most Fridays from 10:00am to 11:30am through the summer. If weather permits, we will be meeting at local parks also. Please check our Facebook page "Sandyston Tot Group" to find us each week.

Strike it rich

Where does true wealth lie? In his Spiritual Exercises, Saint Ignatius writes, “If I have nothing, my only possession is Christ . . . and this is to be really true to myself—the humility of a person whose whole reality and value is grounded in being created and redeemed in Christ.” The call of a Christian is to be spiritually secure, not taking stock in what the world gives, but in the promises of Christ. That is where true wealth lies: in being fully given to Christ, so that nothing can come between you and the love of God. Feast day of St. Ignatius: July 31
